Come follow Christ in the footsteps of St Chad

SPACE 'THE FINAL FRONTIER'

The Bishop's Pastoral Letter for October 2019

Not just once upon a time

I recently enjoyed a wonderful evening at Lichfield Cathedral, listening to Simon Johnson, the Organist and Assistant Director of Music at St Paul's Cathedral, London, and members of the Lichfield Cathedral Choir and Chamber Choir presenting The Planets by Gustav Holst accompanied by amazing on-screen images from NASA's Goddard Space Flight Centre. This was part of the Cathedral's excellent series of events to mark the 50th anniversary of the first landing by a human being on the moon: 'Journeys through Space and Time'.

I will not forget the wonder of listening to 'Neptune, the Mystic' whilst watching images of cloud formations on the planet itself and being overwhelmed by the beauty of God's creation.

The Psalmist tells us...

'The heavens declare the glory of God; the skies proclaim the work of his hands... Their voice goes out into all the earth, their words to the end of the world.'

Psalm 19: 1-2

Our Creator God made all of this and he also made each one of us as a unique expression of his love. God calls us to care for his creation, to be good stewards. As Archbishop Desmond Tutu has said:

“The future of our fragile, beautiful planet home is in our hands. As God's family, we are stewards of God's creation. We can be wantonly irresponsible, or we can be caring and compassionate. God says, "I have set before you life and death... choose life.”

In April of this year, a 16 year old young woman from Sweden, Greta Thunberg, addressed MPs in the Houses of Parliament.

Her message was clear and powerful:

“We are living with a climate emergency. Sometimes we just simply have to find a way. The moment we decide to fulfill something, we can do anything. And I'm sure that the moment we start behaving as if we were in an emergency, we can avoid climate and ecological catastrophe. Humans are very adaptable: we can still fix this. But the opportunity to do so will not last for long. We must start today. We have no more excuses.”

In the last week of September, people around the world took part in action to coincide with the United Nations Climate Summit, including many churches, schools, chaplaincies and fresh expressions in this diocese.

We can all be a part of restoring God's creation, we can all make a difference but it requires our ongoing commitment – we're not finished in a week! In my office we are taking further steps to become more environmentally friendly, stopping any use of 'single use' plastics and items that are not environmentally friendly, ensuring that we cut down on the amount of paper we use and that all documents are printed double-sided, reducing, re-using and recycling.

What will you do?

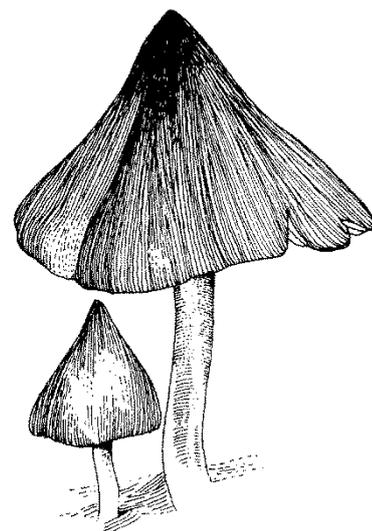

+ Sarah Bullock, Bishop of Shrewsbury

Please note: ENDONIAN SOCIETY HARVEST

Rev Alan has been informed that the Endonian Society Harvest Service and Auction planned for Friday October 4th in the village hall has been cancelled.

Ballerina, blushing,
parrot,
spangle, goblet!

What do these all have in common? If you're ever asked this in a quiz, then the answer is that these are all names of waxcaps! Waxcaps are our most distinctive grassland fungi, found in places which have not been ploughed, reseeded or sprayed. Churchyards are a real haven for them. Small, shiny, often brightly coloured and mushroom-shaped, they appear like scattered jewels thrown across the grass.

Before the development of the microscope in the 18th century, fungi were a puzzle, appearing overnight and sometimes taken to be the work of 'dark powers'. Actually, the visible part of the fungus is the 'fruit', filled with spores. The rest of the fungus is below ground and consists of hair-like filaments called hyphae which develop into a mesh or mycelium, growing through the material from which they take their food. There is still much for ecologists to learn about the complex relationship between grassland plants and trees and the fungi associated with them, but it is clear that they are a vital component.

If you are managing your churchyard grassland for wildflowers, then you will be helping the grassland fungi too. Waxcaps need short grass in autumn but both lawn and meadow areas will be cut short by now, so they can appear in either. Try not to mow them; allowing time for spores to be released and remember the golden rule: always rake and remove your grass cuttings, regardless of the grass length.

All Welcome at 11.00am every Sunday in St Luke's Primary CE Academy for 35 minutes followed by refreshments, time to chat and play.

The children at Connections have enjoyed making these stilts.

Many thanks to Wendy and Neil Taylor for finding the cardboard tubes (insides of carpet rolls) and to Alan Payne for cutting them up and drilling the holes.

Many hours of fun ahead!

The Connections folk are currently studying Paul's letter to the Philippians.

ST LUKE'S FLOWER CLUB BEGINS ITS SECOND YEAR!

It was lovely to be back at Flower Club on September 18th with Pauline and Jeanette back to advise us. At our next meeting on Wednesday October 2nd we will be making our first attempt at creating a pedestal arrangement using autumn flowers, foliage, berries and rose hips. The arrangements will make a colourful back drop to our Harvest service on October 6th. Do join us - no experience needed!

We are also looking to increase the number of knitters/ sewers for our Craft Club. It's held at the same time as the Flower Club which is 1pm to 3pm. You don't have to be an expert but it would be great to have some knitted/crocheted/ fabric flowers to help decorate the church, plus some angels to give away for Christmas.

The main pleasure is to chat to others and enjoy their company. If anyone would like a lift please let me know.

Looking forward to seeing everyone;
why not bring a friend?

Leek Deanery Synod

held at St Matthew's Church, Meerbrook on 23rd July 2019

Rev Brian Statham expressed the joy of visiting village churches for the summer meetings of Leek Deanery Synod and led us in a reading from 1 Corinthians 1: 26 – 30 and prayed for the churches of the Deanery and all the people there, especially at St Matthew's. He prayed that we will be signs and symbols of God's presence to the community. We prayed for our speaker Rev Frances Wilson and all her work encompasses. She apologised for leaving her computer at home inadvertently and introduced the evening's portion of the Diocesan Vision Priority, "Vocation" by reminding us of the vision statement:

As we follow Christ in the footsteps of St Chad, we pray that the two million people in our diocese encounter a church that is confident in the gospel, knows and loves its communities, and is excited to find God already at work in the world. We pray for a church that reflects the richness and variety of those communities. We pray for a church that partners with others in seeking the common good, working for justice as people of hope.

Frances finds the letter to the Corinthians very encouraging. Changes happen throughout life, and we need to keep involved. Most of our vocations are out in the world. Sometimes church must be "done differently" because the world is always changing and the Diocese can offer training for laity to enhance their vocations. There are specific courses in ministries such as bereavement and pastoral work, but courses can also be run as needed by the Deanery or Parishes. Courses can be held locally or may be distance learning, with a mentor to assist, allowing the participant to take part at their own speed and in their own time. These can also cover other ideas, such as Food Bank work or organisation, as well as Parish work. The Diocese wants to support members of the Laity who are called by reflective and spiritual work, and by using mentors. Courses can be tailored to Parish needs. The Reader Ministry is a specific ministry and the course follows a National Syllabus. Recently the course has changed venue and times and now runs at weekends in Stafford, centrally in the Diocese. Approximately eighteen people in the Diocese have shown an interest in this course. Rev Brian Statham thanked Francis for joining us and inspiring us to work for God in our parishes. He encouraged us to relay this information to our Church Councils. Brian reminded us of the reading from Romans 12 "serve well".

Rev Amanda Pike is moving from the United Benefice of Cheddleton, Horton, Longton and Rushton Spencer to Northampton in the autumn, so there will be an interregnum in the benefice.

The next Synod meeting “Loving our Communities” will be held at St Luke’s school, Endon on Tuesday October 1st at 7.30pm and our speaker will be Bishop Geoff, who may celebrate Eucharist with us.

Those who use Social Media can sign up to a C of E Digital Charter. We have signed up to this as a Church. The link is <https://www.churchofengland.org/terms-and-conditions/our-digital-charter>

YARN BOMB

We are embarking on a Christmas ‘Yarn Bomb’ hoping to knit enough angels to hand out at our crib service and if possible to distribute around the village before Christmas. Patterns will be in church shortly. Please see Sue, Shirley or Maryanne.

A reminder of Barrie’s concern...

SITUATIONS VACANT

Next July we shall be saying farewell to Rev Alan and Maryanne and so it is not too early to start thinking seriously how our many jobs are to be done both in and around our Church during the interregnum.

Following on from Roger Simpson's appeal at our APCM we will be minus Vicar + Maryanne + all sorts of others and we need volunteers to fill the forthcoming vacancies such as verger duties. Please talk to Barrie if you consider yourself a willing and available volunteer.

NEWS FROM ST CHAD'S

sent in by Sheila Tipper

TOWER ALTERATIONS:

You may have spotted the notice on the church door concerning our proposal to add a new floor in the tower. The architect's drawing is displayed at the back of church showing how it would look.

The new ceiling will be approximately 3.65m (12ft) above the ground, roughly level with the top of the window arch. Access will be via a drop-down loft ladder. In the new "clock room" thus created there will be a fixed access to the bell chamber and thence the roof.

This work will enable safer access to all areas of the tower, avoiding the use of extended ladders, so making it easier to inspect, clean and maintain. The other main benefit will be to make it easier to keep the entrance to church warmer. New lighting will be installed, together with emergency lighting and a smoke alarm.

In order to install the ceiling, the two wooden boards showing the Decalogue, Lord's Prayer and Creed will be relocated into the newly created clock room.

We are now in the 30 day consultation period, which gives members of the public the opportunity to send any comments or objections to Lichfield for the Diocesan Advisory Committee's consideration (details are on the notice).

Hopefully, at the end of this time, Lichfield will be able to grant the Faculty approving the work. The initial estimate from the architect is around £20,000, which we would be able to meet from existing funds.

We will keep you informed of progress as things move forward. In the meantime, should you have any questions, please feel free to ask Kathryn, Julia or myself.

Blessing of the Pets

Sunday 1st September:

Ian and I took the service and it was really enjoyable. We had lots of dogs, a cat, a tortoise and two chickens.

It was a celebratory service where the very well behaved animals were individually blessed (not sure the owners were as well behaved!!)

The worship was wonderful and God was definitely present in St Chad's.

Kathryn

I am humbled.....

I didn't fancy the pet service last Sunday - I've no objection to pets, I just don't want to spend an hour in a closed environment with them! So I decided to go to the 9 o'clock service, mainly, I am ashamed to admit, to drop the newsletters off. What a revelation! I really enjoyed it! There were only 5 of us plus the vicar but it was a lovely, friendly service. I was there for about three quarters of an hour, but that included "chatting" time.

I am now torn. I love the family services but I would like to go again to the 9 o'clock one, however, I don't think my bum could cope with 2 services on a wooden pew! One thing that it has taught me is not to jump to conclusions and judge without trying it first. I admit that I was one of the first to think that losing this service didn't matter but now that I've tried it I would hate to see it go. Think about it and maybe give it a try. You, like me, may be pleasantly surprised.

Beetle Drive:

Nearly 50 of us met up in the village hall to enjoy an evening of frivolity, fun and feasting! Yes, it was once again time for the annual beetle drive!

We started off by tucking into pie, peas and red cabbage, followed by delicious desserts. Thanks must go to Joan, Freda and helpers who, once again, managed it all so well.

Then it was time for the serious business of beetle driving - did I say serious? There was a great deal of noise, lots of laughter and general pandemonium! The winner from each table moved on after each game and so there was always the chance to catch up with friends old and new.

There was a nice mix of church folk, villagers and friends which provided a lovely atmosphere. There was the usual mix of winners and losers both young and not so young (once again, I wasn't one of them!)

A very big "thank you" to all those involved in making it a lovely evening. We sometimes forget just how much effort is needed to prepare and organise these events especially, as these days, we seem to lead such busy lives. I am sure that everyone enjoyed it just as much as I did, so hats off to the food providers, the setters up of the hall, the organisers of the games, the washers up, the clearers away and the providers of presents for the winners.

Dates for your Diary:

St Chad's is open on a Wednesday morning. If you can spare any time between 10.45 and 12.15 please pop in and enjoy a drink and a chat.

Sunday October 6th - Harvest Service followed by lunch in the village hall. Barbara would like anyone willing to provide flowers and decorate a window in the church to meet on Friday 4th October at 2pm.

Please do not think you have to be an expert flower arranger to help! A simple bunch of flowers in a vase or a pot plant is fine - in fact they are easier to distribute! After the service, all the floral contributions are distributed to those who are unable to get to church, are ill or in particular need. If you know of someone who you feel would benefit from a gift, please let Barbara know their details. Harvest gifts will be sold in church after the service at a maximum cost of £10.00.

The cost of the lunch will be:
Adults £10; Children under 12 £5;
Family ticket (2 adults and up to 3 children) £25; under 5s free

Other Dates

Wednesday 9th October - Communion service at 10.45a.m. Coffee and biscuits to follow when church is open to the public.

- Accordion concert - postponed until Spring next year.
- Christmas Fayre – Saturday 30th November – more details next month.
- Creative Corner craft club meet on Mondays at 1pm to 3pm at The Stafford Arms.

Dates until Christmas:

Oct. 14th; 28th; Nov. 11th; 25th; Dec 9th

October 18th ST LUKE'S DAY

How many times have you visited St Luke's church and wondered whether there is anything in the building which would indicate who our patron saint might be? You may have noticed the stained glass section high up in the window immediately to the left as you enter through the main door. This window is dedicated to St Luke with the words "Sanctus Lucas". However, you may not have noticed the symbol on the top of the warden's staff which is usually held in place by two metal rings on the west end of the central aisle.

St Luke's School has a wall dedicated to St Luke which has various symbols to represent him including a "winged beast" of the Book of Revelation which is thought to refer to him. This wrought iron symbol has been moved recently. (Does anyone know what has happened to it?) Nevertheless the "winged beast" remains part of the school badge. The symbols on the wall (in brick) show that he was a writer who wrote the third gospel and the Book of Acts and that he was also a painter and of course a doctor.

Home Groups

are a way of studying the bible in a relaxed and friendly atmosphere. We can ask the questions that we do not always have time to on a Sunday. Not only do home groups help us on our journey of faith but they also strengthen the relationships within church. At the moment a group meets at James & Ros's on a Monday evening, a group at the vicarage on alternate Wednesday evenings and a group at Bagnall Heights on Tuesday mornings.

Both Monday and Wednesday groups are currently studying the STORYLINES course using a DVD and books prepared by Mike Pilavachi and Andy Croft. This is proving to be a very interesting and informative type of bible study and one which we would heartily recommend to anyone who wants to go deeper in their faith and understanding of the gospel. We have studied the covenants laid down in the Old Testament and how they lead to the covenant God made with Jesus and thus to salvation for all who receive Him. We cannot earn our way to heaven no matter how hard we may try! This doesn't mean we ditch God's laws of love of course. As Mike puts it...the Ten Commandments are not the Ten Polite Suggestions!! Interested? Join a group!

Last month James and I were fortunate enough to enjoy a short cruise to the Shetland Isles and to Norway. Although we never felt in any danger we were experiencing a Force 6 gale on the Sunday morning when a number of us gathered for a scheduled church service in the theatre at the stern end of the ship. Due to the "motion of the ocean" we all remained seated for the duration of the service. If you are a seasoned cruiser you may already have heard this Seafarer's version of Psalm 23 which was read out:

The Lord is my pilot, I shall not drift. He lighteth me across dark water. He steereth me in deep channels. He keepeth my log. He guideth me by the star of holiness for His name's sake. Yea, even amidst the thunders and tempests of life, I dread no danger; for Thou art with me, Thy love and Thy care, they shelter me. Thou preparest a harbour before me in the homeland of Eternity. Thou anointest the waves with oil – my ship rides calmly. Surely sunlight and starlight shall favour me on the voyage I take, and I will rest in the port of my God forever. Amen.
