February 2021

INTERREGNUM Month 8

February 2nd

We don't usually celebrate Candlemas but it often appears in diaries and on calendars being 40 days after both the seasons of Christmas and Epiphany.

According to the latest diocesan bulletin Candlemas celebrations combine three themes: the first signs of spring, the presentation of Christ in the Temple and the feast of St Bridget of Kildare. Traditionally it marked the end of the Christmas season when the tree came down and was burnt on a fire from which candles were lit and taken back to the church, carrying the light of Christmas into the rest of the year.

Roger writes...

A green poster with white text. The main text reads 'TALK TO US' in large, bold, sans-serif letters. Below it, in smaller text, is 'If things are getting to you'. In the bottom left corner, it says 'A registered charity'. On the right side, there is a white box with the text 'Talk to us any time you like, in your own way – about whatever's getting to you.' Below this box are icons for a phone, an envelope, and a globe, followed by the phone number '116 123' with 'FREE' in a speech bubble, the email 'jo@samaritans.org', and the website 'samaritans.org'. At the bottom right is the Samaritans logo, which is the word 'SAMARITANS' in green inside a white rectangular box with a black border.

We intend to hold Samaritans Sunday on the 7th February. This is the 67th anniversary of the day when the first trained listener took the first Samaritans phone call. We had booked a brilliant speaker, but she is unable to join us, so you've just got me!

SAMARITANS SUNDAY

Be there if you can!

Sheila Hurst writes...

This is just a reminder to Mothers' Union members that subscriptions for 2021 are due to Sheila H by February 14th.

ST LUKE'S LENT & EASTER

Following the success of the outdoor carol service it has been proposed that we hold another spaced out outdoor event for Easter in the form of a treasure hunt that families can take part in with Fairtrade Real Easter Eggs for prizes. The story of Holy Week will be portrayed around the church yard with an accompanying quiz sheet. There will be an entry fee in aid of church funds. If you would like to help in organising this event and/or donating a Fairtrade Easter Egg (or two) then please contact Shirley Brindley. Please note that the Real Easter Egg is no longer on sale in supermarkets but can only be obtained on-line through The Meaningful Chocolate Company, Traidcraft, Tear Fund or The Leprosy Mission.

It is also proposed that we have a collection for the Bishop's Lent Appeal even though we shall not be able to have our customary Lent Lunch. Ash Wednesday falls on 17th February with Easter Day on 4th April.

FEBRUARY AT ST CHAD'S

The church will remain closed this month and until further notice. Kath and her team will continue to produce YouTube services which are available online each week. Please consult St Chad's website or Facebook page for the link. Any queries please contact Kath (phone no on back page).

Contributions to the food bank are most welcome and can be left in the church porch on Saturdays, Sundays and Monday mornings ready for collection and taken to Leek.

Thank you to everyone for your generous gifts for the women, teenagers and children who find themselves the unfortunate victims of domestic violence in North Staffordshire. Your gifts were very gratefully accepted by the staff when Barrie dropped them off. As you can see his car boot was quite loaded when he left St Luke's after the Toy Service on December 13th.

LICHFIELD

Come follow Christ in the footsteps of St Chad

ZOE CORNEY FINDS SOME HAVE WELCOMED THE CHANGES TO CHURCH LIFE BROUGHT ABOUT BY THE PANDEMIC

Different life, different church, different worship 2020... the year that churches all over the country had to close the doors on its buildings. But 2020 was also the year that we were introduced to new ways to worship, with the surge in the provision of online and telephone services. For many who find leaving the house difficult due to poor physical or mental health, this abundance of new services has meant less isolation in a time when many others were, for the first time, feeling cut off from the rest of their world.

As one in the Enabling Church network in the diocese said recently:

“The availability of online prayer, worship and study has been life changing for me and no doubt thousands of housebound people like me. I've been able to join morning prayer, evening prayer and Sunday worship once again, and am also a member of an online Christian discussion group. I'm sure that they have helped me overcome feelings of isolation and estrangement, connecting me once again with the church community which I've missed and within which I can fulfil our purpose and give and receive love.”

In a year that was different to any other, life was different, church was different, worship was different. Although the physical doors on our church buildings were shut for many months, for many Christians new doors were opening as much of the church's life moved online; many people who are housebound, both recently and more long term, have been delighted to have access to the worship and community of the Church again. Much energy from ministers has been put into establishing practices, developing resources and raising skill levels; and in some churches, new volunteers have come forward to resource online worship and ministry. Virtual worship has worked well for many Christians with statistics showing that one quarter of the UK population has taken part in online worship during the last year.

A survey in our own diocese in the middle of last year showed that over 60% of parishes were able to make provision for online worship during the first lockdown. And our own cathedral in Lichfield is now live-streaming services three times per day, and regularly has online congregations at morning prayer that are up to ten times the number that used to attend in person.

For many, the lockdown and the provision of online prayer and worship which have come out of it have been a major boost to spiritual life. Of course, virtual church will never replace Church but the two do sit side by side.

It's good for the church that we now know that online discipleship and fellowship is part of our life. It's good for the church that we can reach people again that we had too easily let go of. Perhaps the challenge to pose is not one of inclusion but of integration: how will our online and offline lives fit together?

Zoe Corney is part of the diocesan Enabling Church team, who also lives with ME. The Enabling Church team is part of Transforming Communities Together, a charity formed and supported by Lichfield Diocese and Church Urban Fund, delegated to support people and communities to thrive and flourish tctogether.org.uk

Churches Count on Nature

In 2020 we were not able to get together, so we are very much looking forward to hearing about how you are celebrating churchyards in 2021. For several years we have been running a dedicated celebratory week highlighting the wildlife, heritage and history that they contain and every bit as importantly, the fantastic people who look after them. This takes place in the 2nd week of June, taking in the weekend at either end. In 2021 its Saturday 5th till Sunday 13th June.

The week started off as Cherishing Churchyards Week, but many cemetery Friends groups contacted us to ask if they might join in, so we changed the name to Love Your Burial Ground Week, making it clear that they could. Now we're expanding, in partnership with the Church of England and A Rocha, to include Churches Count on Nature.

Together we are asking that churches use Love Your Burial Ground Week as a springboard to start recording the wildlife within their churchyards. So, if you fancy running a wildlife spotting event then please join in.

So, what type of event should we run?

That is completely up to you, it could be a children's activity looking at leaves or bugs, a couple of birdwatchers seeing what they can spot, or a large event, with experts helping to reveal the hidden wonders of nature within your churchyard. A few years ago we ran an event of this type at St Michael's in Lichfield and as a result of this, and other surveys they now have a list of over 1,000 species found within that churchyard.

What shall we do with the lists of things we see?

Please send them to us. You can put them straight onto our iRecord system, send them by email or put a list in the post. Just make sure you get them to us somehow!

Why tell us in February?

Please register your interest now at www.caringforgodsacre.org.uk/expression-of-interest-in-churches-count-on-nature-2021/. If you want advice or some financial support we may be able to help, so once you have an outline plan, get in touch.

STAMPS FOR THE LEPROSY MISSION

THANK YOU to all from both churches who have brought used stamps to church or to our door. On Feb 1st they will go off to the Leprosy Mission to raise funds for much needed treatments. Ros

CHURCH FUNDS.. a reminder

Thank you also to those who keep up regular giving. Please continue to bring your gift or envelope to church or you may issue a cheque and post it to Sheila Hurst or set up a monthly standing order (not a direct debit as this creates more work for our treasurer). There is also a 'Just Giving' link on our website. Those who bank on-line may prefer to pay directly into the church account by setting up Endon St Luke's PCC as a new recipient*. (Bank details from Steve Dale or Sheila Hurst. Phone nos back page.*)

PARKINSON'S UK...more thanks!

A total of £640.00 has been donated to Parkinson's UK in memory of my Dad, Roy Horley. My Dad became a keen supporter of this organisation when his son-in-law developed this condition back in 2009.

THANK YOU to those in St Luke's who contributed to the total as well as to other friends and relatives.

In the last few decades treatment has been developed to address and control some of the symptoms of the disease but we hope that one day soon an effective cure can be found. That will only happen if there are sufficient funds to continue research. Sadly, compared to some other life-changing illnesses, neurological conditions receive a surprisingly small amount. Ros

EASY FUNDRAISING

Remember that Sue Forrester has signed up St Luke's to an online fundraising app. It works rather like a Natwest rewards scheme. If you shop online many retailers will donate a percentage of your spend to a nominated charity when you access their sites through the easyfundraising app.

Please consider signing up and using the app when you shop online. Any queries please contact Sue.

PLEASE KEEP KNITTING! A further two bags were collected by Sue on Jan 16th. We have now donated around 1500 squares...and the need is still out there. Another convoy of blankets and other aid will be going out very soon.

CHUTNEY and MARMALADE....please save your jars!

Thank you to Barbara Brown for providing jars of delicious chutneys and marmalade for church funds. When your jars are empty Barbara would appreciate them being washed out and returned to her so she can re-use them.

THANK YOU again Barbara for supplying us with another lovely iced Christmas cake which made £80 using Shirley's "squares"! Also THANK YOU to Sylvia for supplying the other prizes.

Another smile from Clive Smith....

Just had a decorator in. He was a furloughed airline pilot doing a bit of extra work. He made a great job of the landing.
